Violation of Pretrial Release

After a hearing pursuant to 18 USC § 3148 (violation of pretrial release order), the court finds that:

1. ☐ there is probable cause to believe the defendant has committed a federal, state or local crime while on release and has not rebutted the presumption that his/her release will endanger another or the community, or
☒ there is clear and convincing evidence that defendant has violated another condition of release, or,
☐ the defendant stipulates he/she violated a condition of release, and
2. ☐ based on the factors set forth in 18 USC § 3142(g), there is no condition or combination of conditions of release that will assure that defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the safety of another person or the community or ☒ defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of conditions of release.
